3.1 You must deposit funds into your Account before placing trades. Minimum and maximum deposit amounts are published on our website and within the platform. All deposits must be made from payment methods in your own name. We do not accept deposits from third parties.

3.2 We will deposit all money paid by you into our segregated client money account (Trust Account). You agree and acknowledge that:

(a) your money in our Trust Account is not kept separate from the money of other clients;

(b) we may withdraw your funds from the Trust Account in any of the following circumstances:

- Making a payment to you, or in accordance with your written directions, for the purposes of entering into Titan Options contracts, including but not limited to trade amount payments and settlement amounts at expiry;

3.3 You acknowledge and agree that holding funds in the Trust Account does not constitute a deposit with a bank or other deposit-taking institution, and that such funds do not attract interest unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by us.

Withdrawals

3.4 You may request a withdrawal of available funds from your account at any time, subject to the conditions set out in this section. We aim to process withdrawal requests within 3 business days of receipt, subject to completion of any required verification checks, our internal risk assessments, and the availability and processing times of your chosen payment method. Where instant processing is available, this will be indicated on the platform at the time of your request. Actual receipt of funds may take longer than our internal processing time due to third-party processing times outside our control, and we accept no liability for such delays.

3.5 Subject to applicable law and our internal policies, withdrawals will ordinarily be processed back to the same payment method and account used to fund your Account. Where the original funding method cannot be used (for example, due to technical issues, closure of the payment account, or regulatory restrictions), we may, at our discretion and in consultation with you, process the withdrawal to an alternative payment method in your name, subject to such additional verification as we may require.

3.6 We reserve the right to withhold, delay, or refuse processing of a withdrawal request where:

(a) we suspect fraudulent, abusive, or suspicious activity on the Account;
(b) you have made repeated deposits and withdrawals without proportionate trading activity; or
(c) Your identity verification process is incomplete or requires further review; or
(d) we are required to withhold funds by applicable law, regulation, or by a competent regulatory authority.

(a) deduct a Withdrawal Fee of 4% of the value of each subsequent withdrawal request from your Account, effective from the date we determine that the Withdrawal Fee is applicable; and/or (b)Immediately terminate our relationship and close your Account.

3.8 If you dispute, reverse, or otherwise seek to recover any payment used to fund your Account (including without limitation, payments made by a bank transfer, credit or debit card, digital wallet or digital asset or cryptocurrency transaction), without a lawful basis, or in a manner we reasonably consider abusive or fraudulent, we may, in our sole discretion:

(a) suspend or terminate your Account;
(b) withhold any pending or future withdrawals until the relevant dispute, reversal, or recovery request is fully resolved; and/or
(c) debit your Account for any amounts, fees, charges, or costs we incur as a result of such dispute, reversal, recovery request, or similar action, including but not limited to chargeback fees, administrative costs, and any losses suffered by us as a result.

3.9 From time to time, we may offer bonuses, promotions, or rewards in connection with Titan Options. Any such offers are subject to separate promotional terms and conditions, which will be notified to you at the time of the relevant offer. To the extent of any inconsistency between those promotional terms and these Terms and Conditions, the promotional terms shall govern your entitlement to the relevant bonus or reward. Standard deposits and withdrawals are not subject to additional restrictions by reason of a bonus or promotion, except as expressly stated in the applicable promotional terms. Where a bonus or promotional credit has been applied to your Account, additional conditions relating to trading activity or turnover requirements may apply before such funds become eligible for withdrawal, as set out in the applicable promotional terms.

Payment Agents & Third Party Fees

3.10 Payments may be processed by authorised payment agents acting on behalf of Titan FX. These agents are authorised solely to collect and process payments and assume no other obligations under these Terms and Conditions.
